

Attention: Families and Alumni

Are you called to serve?

The St. Boniface Diocesan High School is seeking community-minded individuals to join the board of directors. This is a unique opportunity for you to share your time and talent in upholding the school's vision, mission, and strategic goals - ensuring the sustainability of the Catholic education.

We are looking for board members who can:

- Identify themselves as Catholic school supporter.
- Work within the Catholic vision of the school to ensure good governance.
- Provide assistance in areas such as Finance, Policy, Marketing, Human Resources, and Development.
- Use your energy, expertise, and knowledge to make a difference and build a strong community.
- Devote an average of 3 hours per month, depending on your involvement in any special projects.

While serving on the St. Boniface High School's board of directors, you will collaborate with similar-minded professionals who want to help make the Catholic school community a more inclusive and more socially-responsive place. You will expand and sharpen your skillset, and enrich your resume by demonstrating how your expertise and leadership skills make a significant contribution to the Catholic school community.
